40 Assets Tip Asset #1 - Family life provides high levels of love and support.

Although Valentine's Day has passed, every day is appropriate for examining what "love" is. For parents, it first means making children feel emotionally and physically safe and your home a refuge from anything negative outside of the home. Being respectful regardless of your mood or what they have done. Allowing mistakes and forgetfulness. Choosing more guidance, less punishment. Helping them succeed in what they want when it doesn't appeal to you. Listening to and caring about their concerns no matter how small they seem. Matching and changing if needed, your words and actions to what you want them to copy. Every day, look for opportunities to praise your children and let them know how happy they make you. And give them lots of hugs.
