

END GAME

Join Hospice of the Foothills...

for a special screening of End Game, a documentary that focuses on families grappling with disease, death and denial. This film challenges the viewer to reckon with their own mortality and break down barriers between the known and unknown. The film will be followed by a discussion and Q&A with end-of-life professionals.

“The earlier people engage in conversations about what matters most to them with the people they love, the more likely it is that they’re going to get care down the road that’s in line with their goals and their values.” ~ Dr. Shoshana Ungerleider
