Community Support Network of Nevada County Meeting Agreements

- Make decisions by consensus.
- Create an atmosphere of mutual respect that includes active listening and listening without judging.
- Start and end on time.
- Maintain a sense of humor and a positive attitude.
- Bring concerns to the whole group. Don't take them to the parking lot after the meeting.
- Set up the room in an inclusive way.
- Take responsibility for a task only if you have the time to accomplish it.
- Everyone is empowered to be a process observer and take ownership for the health of the meeting and is responsible for the health of the whole meeting.
- Be sensitive to others' need for more information. Make sure everyone understands.
- Be careful of injecting your self-interest and label it as such. Be able to layout your agency's interest and be open to other's interests.
- Meetings are meaningful and have a shared purpose.
- This is a living document and can be changed as needed.

Developmental Asset - Developmental Issues & 40 Assets #2,3,4,5,6,7

While some of the 40 experiences & qualities that make up the 40 Assets may be more difficult to gain for those with developmental issues, most are not. All of us can boost the assets in any child, or adult, by being consistent with simple, caring behaviors:

Noticing

Acknowledging

Smiling

Greeting by name

Listening

Taking concerns seriously

Helping when help is needed

Praising successes

Being respectful

Allowing for differences in interests & skills

Allowing for mistakes.

Asset #2 Family provides high levels of love and support.

Asset #3 Parents and youth communicate positively.

Asset #4 Young person receives support from 3 or more adults in addition to parents.

Asset #5 Young person experiences caring neighbors.

Asset #6 School provides a caring and encouraging environment.

Asset #7 Young person feels that adults in the community values youth.

"Making one person smile can change the world--maybe not the whole world, but their world." (Anon)
